The Community Housing Coalition of Madison County received a $10,000 donation from the Land of the Sky Association of Realtors in June. The funds come without any restrictions and will enable the local nonprofit to build on its efforts to promote and facilitate healthy, safe and affordable housing across the county.

"We will put this generous donation to great use," said CHC Executive Director Christopher Brown. "This will allow us to continue our work repairing and rehabbing homes to help those in need across Madison County."

Ann Harold, a board member at Land of the Sky Realtors, stated that the local real estate association selected CHC as a primary beneficiary of the group's charitable funds due to the two organizations focus on housing.

"The work done by the Community Housing Coalition fits with our core values and our core standards for community development," said Harold.

"We are proud to support their efforts."
